Health and Wholeness Ministry Presents:

Lessons for a Sacred Time: Conversations with a Hospice Chaplain

Imagine being as well-educated and prepared for the ending season of life as we are about pregnancy and birth.

Imagine how differently we might approach our own death or be supportive of a dying loved one if we had a better understanding of what happens naturally to body and soul as death nears for a loved one or for ourselves.

Imagine what it might be like to anticipate the mystery of dying as a sacred time.

Join Rev. Frank Williams of the Casa de la Luz Hospice chaplain's office and the St. Mark's Health and Wholeness Ministry Team for a very special conversation about faith, love and soul.

Saturday, February 4, 2012
