*CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: Are we so tied to people in this congregation

People: That we are only slightly concerned with those who watch us from a distance?

Leader: Are we more focused on making the budget for the sake of the status quo

People: Than who is living in cars or on the street tonight?

Leader: Are we more concerned with keeping the kitchen, the traditions, the sanctuary exactly as they are

People: Than we are in welcoming people of other cultures with new foods, new ways, and different approaches to worship?

Leader: Or does our relationship with Christ and our connection with this community

People: Empower and embolden us to be vigilant and full of care for aching souls and fumbling humanity who have not heard God's love song for them?

Leader: Does our relationship with Christ and our connection with this community

People: Empower and embolden us to joyful hospitality with people of all ages, nations, races and sexual orientations?

Leader: We come today to worship God

People: And be transformed to loving without counting the cost.

CALL TO RECONCILIATION

God calls us to take a closer look at ourselves, and God is present when we do.

PRAYER OF RECONCILIATION (unison)

God Who Is Love, you know that each one of us is prejudiced. We have suspicions or mindsets about people who are different from us in some way or another. Forgive our hardhearted, hardheaded approach to any person or group. Give us eyes to see the rifts that need to be mended and the chasms that need to be crossed. Give us eyes to see beauty where we now see difference; and to feel a connection where we are now fearful or uneasy. Forgive our narrowness and free us to wide and gracious love. Forgive us when we have a death grip on the ninety-nine and are reticent in any way to be in relationship with the One who is longing to know that we might live fully and love unconditionally. Amen.
